The Drag Race Was a Hoot!

Every year the outfits get more outrageous. This year we had fewer participants because of the weather, but miraculously it rained before the drag race stayed dry through the race and rained again that night. This event must be blessed....it has never been rained out. Thanks go out to everyone who participated with a food or drink station. Your participation makes this event possible. This year's Miss Campy "O" is Rickey Haripersad. You'll be seeing him again in the Labor Day show.
