Rob & Jim's Hoax

So many of you have thanked us for a wonderful Tea Dance last Saturday and told us how wonderful a time was had by one and all. But we have to confess--while we did some shopping and lots of smiling, it's a fraud for us to take credit. The real success of the Tea Dance goes to the many people who took care of us.

First we have to thank Chris Congro and his team, especially Mickey and Vince. These guys delivered all of the decorations and spent precious time is setting things up (not to mention later cleaning up With a team like that we were in for success. Also we have to thank the many of you who brought exquisite foods or drink to the party. We would love to name everybody who contributed, but then the rag would have to go multi-page.

Actually the tea dance couldn't have happened at all if once again our friends, particularly George Gerych, and our Broadway neighbors Jay and Bob hadn't come to the rescue of our new trailer which has consumed our time and energy with glitches. That's all behind us!

For the Tea Dance, we had promised drinks mu nchies and music and our energetic DJ Rob was the hit of the afternoon with tunes that everybody enjoyed. But we needed one thing that only you could provide...hot men, and wow was there a crowd. So many of you came up with creative beach apparel and there was good cheer all around. We feel amazingly fortunate that so many terrific people came to show us a good time, rather than vice versa! We were the fortunate ones to get to host you!
