News From the South

Many of our friends at Oneida were so concerned about the situation in Florida last week with the potential for disaster from Hurricane Dorian, and Rob and I were touched by your concern. So I'm writing to let you know that Rob, myself and the dogs are now safely at our home in Fort Lauderdale, all of my family are fine, and the hurricane stayed so far away that there wasn't even a power outage. In fact, we drove through the interior of the Carolinas on the very day that Dorian was battering the coastal islands, but we didn't see a drop of rain or any traffic. We didn't have a chance to say goodbye to everybody and we know that by leaving so early we are missing out on many fine weekends ahead. In fact, we are thinking right now of the all new Bear Weekend. We are sure that the new hosts, Steve and Raymond, and Randy and David will have done a fantastic job. We had seen all of the preparations going on at the new site and we will be eager for news of the success.

Best wishes to one and all
--Jim and Rob
